

Kairos of Georgia State Chapter Meeting Minutes
June 8, 2019
Christ United Methodist Church Forsyth, GA

Chairman Doug Unger called the meeting to order at 9:09 AM. Stan Yarbrough opened the meeting with prayer. Jim Smith gave a very moving testimony about being fruitful and what is required to be fruitful.

GEORGIA DOC BADGING AND TRAINING: Allen Hughes gave a detailed explanation of the new Georgia DOC training and badging for new volunteers. By answering correctly the four on line questions the volunteer can submit their application. The GDOC will review and process the application and contact the applicant about a month later, with the next available training date. The training session will last about four hours and open completion, the volunteer will be given a GDOC badge. Badge renewals will continue to be processed through the volunteer's local prison chaplain. Volunteers will need to contact the chaplain 90 days before badge expires or 30 days after the badge expires. Allen gave Georgia SCC his administrative assistant information, if an issue or question arises. Kenya Barrion; 478-992-6406; kenya.barrion@gdc.ga.gov. Renewals require completion of three forms: the face sheet, a PREA form and the GCIC form.

Clarification was asked from Beverly Upperman about Kairos weekend pictures. Pictures are NOT ALLOWED due to various security issues.

Arthur reported that he will operate a booth at the conference for entering EI reports.
